

Name _____

The Enchanted Portal

Short Answer Key

1. Maria communicated with the wind spirits by listening to their whispers and responding with gentle gestures and words of gratitude.
2. Maria was inspired to return to her own world because she knew that her family and her own life were waiting for her.
3. One creature from Latin American folklore that Maria encountered was the chupacabra, a mythical creature known for attacking livestock.
4. Maria learned from her encounter with the mariposa monarca that sometimes, helping others find their way home can be a selfless and rewarding act.
5. When Maria found the ancient tree's knot sealed upon her return, she felt a sense of closure and the realization that her adventure had ended.

