

Name _____

The Time-Traveling Talisman

Short Answer Key

1. Kai saw and experienced significant moments in Haida history, including potlatch ceremonies, the construction of cedar longhouses, the creation of cedar canoes, and the unity of their people against outsiders.
2. Kai was inspired to share their time-traveling experiences and knowledge with their tribe because they wanted to preserve and revive Haida traditions and values in the present day.
3. The potlatch ceremony in Haida culture is a traditional celebration filled with dancing, singing, feasting, and the exchange of valuable items like masks, blankets, and totem poles. It represents the tribe's wealth and history.
4. The Haida tribe reacted to Kai's efforts to revive their heritage and traditions by embracing their heritage more strongly, reviving old traditions, celebrating their art and craftsmanship, and working together to protect their ancestral lands.
5. The pivotal moment Kai witnessed during their time travels was when the Haida people united to protect their land from outsiders, which was significant because it filled Kai with a profound sense of pride and demonstrated the resilience and unity of their ancestors.

