

Name _____

Power and Guilt

Short Answer Key

1. She believes Macbeth is too hesitant and kind to take power on his own.
2. She tells Macbeth not to worry and that washing their hands will remove the guilt.
3. She starts sleepwalking, rubbing her hands, and talking about washing away blood.
4. At first, she is in control, but as Macbeth becomes more ruthless, she loses control and feels guilty.
5. She acts more powerful and ambitious than women of her time were expected to be.

