

Name _____

Nature's Gift

Short Answer Key

1. Miss Rumphius' love for nature led her to travel, explore beautiful landscapes, and eventually plant flowers to make the world more beautiful.
2. She saw that flowers could bring beauty to many places and make people happy.
3. People began to appreciate the beauty of flowers and were inspired to take care of nature themselves.
4. People can plant trees, pick up litter, protect animals, and conserve water to help the environment.
5. A simple act, like planting flowers, can grow into something much bigger and inspire others to do good things.

