

Name _____

Two Worlds

Short Answer Key

1. Kansas is described as gray and dull, while Oz is colorful and magical.
2. Dorothy sees talking scarecrows, flying monkeys, witches, and a great wizard.
3. She realizes that no matter how exciting Oz is, she misses her family and the love she has at home.
4. Dorothy means that home is special because of the people we love, not because of how exciting it looks.
5. At first, she sees Kansas as dull, but by the end, she understands that it is special because it is where she belongs.

