

Name _____

The Mystery of the Missing Menorahs

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Mia likely felt a sense of responsibility and determination when Mrs. Rosenbaum asked for her help. She might have also felt excited to take on a new mystery-solving challenge.
2. The menorah was a precious item to Mrs. Rosenbaum and her family because it was a family heirloom that had been passed down through generations, representing their history and traditions.
3. Mia's successful sleuth and detective skills likely include keen observation, problem-solving, perseverance, and resourcefulness in gathering clues and solving mysteries.
4. After Mia solved the mystery, the neighborhood probably viewed her as a hero and a valuable member of the community, with a reputation for helping others in times of need.

