Dragon Protector

Lily was known as a brave protector in her village. One day, an enormous dragon appeared near the forest.

The mayor called for Lily to help. She rode her horse to the dragon's lair. Using a special mirror, she signaled the dragon to come closer. The dragon, curious and not a destroyer, followed Lily. She discovered the dragon was guarding a hidden treasure.

The dragon's role as a guardian made it an ally, not a competitor. Lily reported her findings to the governor. The villagers celebrated their new friend, the dragon.
