

Name _____

Train Snail

In a mystical forest, there lived a tiny snail named Rainy. Rainy was not an ordinary snail. She had a shiny shell with colorful trails that sparkled in the sunlight. One day, Rainy found a magical train ticket lying on the ground. The ticket had a note that said, "Board the Dream Train for an unforgettable adventure."

Excited, Rainy set out to find the Dream Train. After a long journey through the forest, she finally found the train station. The Dream Train was waiting, its bright lights shining like stars. Rainy boarded the train and found a cozy seat next to a window.

As the train started moving, Rainy looked out and saw the most amazing sights. The train went through a fairy tale land where she saw fairies flying and playing with butterflies. They waved at Rainy, and she waved back, smiling with delight.

The next stop was a village known for its amazing bakery. Rainy decided to get off the train and explore. She found a bakery filled with delicious pastries. Rainy bought a chocolate éclair and a strawberry muffin. After enjoying her treats, she got back on the train, excited for more adventures.

The Dream Train continued its journey, sailing over a sparkling river. Rainy saw dolphins jumping and fish with shiny scales swimming alongside the train. She felt like she was in a magical dream.

The train then climbed up a steep mountain trail. Rainy saw goats with curly tails grazing on the hillside. She waved at them, and they bleated back in greeting. The train chugged along and soon arrived at a hidden valley filled with colorful flowers. Rainy got off the train again to explore the valley. She picked a bouquet of daisies and daffodils to take home.

As the day came to an end, the Dream Train flew back to the station where Rainy's adventure had begun. She waved goodbye to the magical train, feeling grateful for the amazing journey she had experienced. Rainy knew she would never forget her wonderful day on the Dream Train.

