

Name _____

Whimsyville

In the bustling town of Whimsyville, there lived a group of friendly animals who loved to have adventures together. One sunny day, they decided to have a picnic in the meadow.

As they spread out their colorful blankets and unpacked their baskets filled with yummy treats, they heard a rustling in the bushes nearby.

Out popped a mischievous squirrel named Squiggles, with a big grin on his face. "Hello, friends!" said Squiggles. "Mind if I join your picnic?"

The animals welcomed Squiggles with open arms and shared their delicious snacks with him. Suddenly, they heard a loud rumble in the sky, and dark clouds began to gather overhead.

"Oh no, it looks like a storm is coming!" exclaimed Squiggles. "Don't worry, I know just the place where we can seek shelter," said Flutter the butterfly, fluttering her wings excitedly. With Squiggles leading the way, they all hurried to the cozy treehouse in the heart of the meadow, where they would wait out the storm together, safe and sound.