

Name _____

Spring Camping Surprises

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Possible answers: The Johnsons remained positive because they focused on making the best of the situation, finding solutions to their problems, and cherishing the moments they spent together.
2. Possible answers: The family learned the importance of adaptability, problem-solving, and the value of spending quality time together in the face of challenges.
3. Possible answers: At the beginning, they may have felt frustrated and worried, but as the day went on, they grew more resourceful and resilient, ending the trip with a positive outlook.
4. Possible answers: They encountered the challenge of rain, a small leak in the tent, and the discovery of a hidden waterfall during their hike.

