The Surprise Birthday Party

One sunny afternoon, three friends named Shane, Charlotte, and Thad planned a surprise birthday party for their friend, Sophia. They had to keep it a secret, so they whispered and giggled as they made their plans.

First, they went to the craft store to buy decorations.

Shane chose bright streamers and balloons, Charlotte picked out a shiny birthday banner, and Thad grabbed some colorful confetti. They were so excited to decorate!

Next, they went to the bakery to get a cake. They chose a chocolate cake with three layers and lots of frosting. The baker added sprinkles and a big number seven on top. It looked delicious!

Then, they made some fun crafts to give as gifts. Shane made a bracelet with beads, Charlotte drew a picture of a unicorn, and Thad crafted a paper crown with glitter. They knew Sophia would love their handmade gifts.

On the day of the party, they set everything up while Sophia was out with her parents. They hung the streamers, blew up the balloons, and set the cake on the table. They also hid behind the couch, ready to jump out and shout "Surprise!"

When Sophia walked in, she was amazed! "Wow! This is the best birthday ever!" she exclaimed. They played games, ate cake, and laughed all afternoon. Sophia loved her gifts and thanked her friends with big hugs.

As the sun set, they sat together and watched a movie. It was the perfect end to a perfect day. "Thank you, everyone," said Sophia. "This was the best surprise ever!"
