

Name _____

The Adventure of Edge and the Magic Bridge

In a quiet village nestled at the edge of a dense forest, there lived a brave young girl named Edge. Edge loved to explore and go on adventures. One sunny morning, as she wandered near the forest's edge, she discovered an ancient stone bridge covered in ivy.

Curiosity sparked in Edge's eyes, and she decided to cross the bridge. As she stepped onto the first stone, the bridge began to shimmer with a magical glow. On the other side, Edge found herself in a wondrous land filled with vibrant flowers, singing birds, and friendly animals.

Edge wandered through this magical land until she came across a wise old hedgehog named Judge. Judge was known for his vast knowledge of the land and its secrets. Edge greeted Judge and asked if he knew anything about the magical bridge.

"Ah, the Magic Bridge," Judge said with a twinkle in his eye. "It appears only to those who seek adventure and have a kind heart. By crossing it, you have shown great courage."

Judge handed Edge a shiny badge shaped like a star. "This badge will protect you on your adventures and guide you back to this magical land whenever you need it," he said.

Edge thanked Judge and continued her journey, meeting new friends and discovering hidden treasures along the way. She found a ridge overlooking the entire magical land and decided to rest there for a while. As the sun began to set, Edge felt a sense of fulfillment and joy.

With the badge in her pocket and a heart full of memories, Edge crossed the bridge back to her village. She knew she would return to the magical land again, for every adventure brought new wonders and friends.

