Ninja's Secret Mission

In the quiet night, a ninja named Limb prepared for his secret mission. He packed a comb and a lamb wool scarf in his backpack.

Sneaking through the shadows, he approached a crumb-covered path. The path led to an old tomb, hidden behind a wall. He moved with nimble steps, avoiding any noise. A subtle breeze made the trees rustle, but Limb stayed focused.

He discovered a hidden cave with a broken ribbon hanging at the entrance. Inside, he found an ancient comb, glowing with a mysterious light. His mission was complete, and he returned home before dawn.
