

Name _____

The Magic Light

One bright evening, Ella and her friends discovered a magical light in the forest. They thought it might be a fairy's home.

Though a bit frightened, they decided to investigate. They brought along a flashlight and enough snacks for the adventure. The path was rough and filled with thick bushes, but they were determined. Suddenly, they caught sight of a small, glowing door hidden behind the boughs of an old tree.

With a light touch, the door opened to reveal a tiny, cozy room. Even though it was small, it was filled with wonder and magic.