

Name _____

Fun with Knights

In a kingdom, a knight planned a grand journey. He wore a knit tunic and a shiny helmet. The knight's horse was known for its strength and speed.

One evening, they arrived at a hidden inn near a mountain. The innkeeper was a kind man who welcomed them warmly. The knight thanked him and settled in for the night.

At dawn, he continued his adventure, ready to face any challenge that might come his way. His courage was a sign of his noble heart. The knight's quest would be remembered for many generations.