

Name _____

Pet Parade

In the lively town of Petville, every year there was an incredible pet parade that everyone eagerly awaited. The parade was a chance for pets to showcase their unique and lovable qualities. This year, Timmy brought his adorable puppy, which had a wagging tail that was simply irresistible.

Lila, a young girl with a creative spirit, entered her colorful parrot, known for its remarkable ability to mimic any sound. The crowd found it highly entertaining and applauded loudly. Next in line was Mr. Jones with his dependable old horse, which was gentle and calm despite the noise.

As the parade continued, the audience saw a playful kitten that was incredibly agile, jumping through hoops with ease. The most unusual pet was a frog that could play a tiny, tunable piano, making everyone laugh with joy. The final participant was a turtle with a shiny, polishable shell, walking slowly but steadily.

The parade ended with a spectacular show of fireworks, making the event unforgettable. Everyone agreed that the Petville pet parade was the most enjoyable and exciting day of the year.