

Name _____

The Day the Crayons Went on Strike

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did the crayons decide to go on strike?
  - a) They were tired of the classroom.
  - b) They wanted more vacation days.
  - c) They felt underused and had complaints.
  - d) They wanted to go home.

2. What did the crayons request during their strike?
  - a) More coloring time for themselves.
  - b) Better sharpeners.
  - c) New crayon friends.
  - d) A day off from school.

3. How did the students react to the crayons' strike?
  - a) They ignored the crayons.
  - b) They organized a petition to support the crayons.
  - c) They stopped coloring altogether.
  - d) They scolded the crayons.

4. What did the teacher agree to in response to the crayons' demands?
  - a) More vacation days for the crayons.
  - b) A new classroom.
  - c) Better crayons.
  - d) The crayons' demands.

5. What did the classroom become after the crayons' strike was resolved?
  - a) A noisy place.
  - b) A boring place.
  - c) A creative and vibrant place.
  - d) A place without crayons.

