

Name _____

Many Voices

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Who is the first narrator of Frankenstein?
 - A) Victor Frankenstein
 - B) The creature
 - C) Robert Walton
 - D) Mary Shelley

2. What does Victor Frankenstein's part of the story focus on?
 - A) How he became an explorer
 - B) His journey across the ocean
 - C) How he taught the creature to speak
 - D) His fear and regret after creating the creature

3. Why is the creature's perspective important in the story?
 - A) It helps readers understand his feelings and experiences
 - B) It proves that he is evil and dangerous
 - C) It shows that he was never truly alive
 - D) It makes Victor look like a villain

4. How does hearing multiple perspectives change the way the reader understands the story?
 - A) It confuses the reader
 - B) It helps the reader see different sides of the story
 - C) It makes the book harder to read
 - D) It shows that only one character is telling the truth

5. What is the main lesson of the passage?
 - A) Every story has more than one side
 - B) The creature was the only important character
 - C) Science is dangerous
 - D) Letters are the best way to tell a story

