

Name _____

Caesar's Tragedy

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was Caesar's tragic flaw?
  - a) He was not a good general.
  - b) He trusted the wrong people and was too proud.
  - c) He was afraid of being powerful.
  - d) He listened to too many warnings.

2. What warning did Caesar ignore?
  - a) A dream from Brutus.
  - b) A letter from Mark Antony.
  - c) A speech from Cassius.
  - d) A soothsayer telling him to beware the Ides of March.

3. Why was Caesar surprised when Brutus betrayed him?
  - a) He thought Brutus was his friend.
  - b) He had planned to betray Brutus first.
  - c) Brutus had warned him the night before.
  - d) Caesar had already stepped down from power.

4. What happened after Caesar's death?
  - a) Rome became peaceful.
  - b) Brutus became king.
  - c) Mark Antony convinced the people to turn against the senators.
  - d) The senators ruled happily without any problems.

5. What is one lesson from Julius Caesar?
  - a) Pride and trust can lead to a person's downfall.
  - b) Leaders should never listen to warnings.
  - c) The strongest people never make mistakes.
  - d) Power always leads to happiness.

