

Name _____

Funny Guests

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What makes the mitten's situation funny?
 - a) The mitten is too small for so many animals.
 - b) The mitten has magical powers.
 - c) The animals politely take turns entering.
 - d) Nicki keeps calling for his mitten.

2. How does the hedgehog's personality add humor to the story?
 - a) He helps make space for the other animals.
 - b) His quills poke the other animals, making them uncomfortable.
 - c) He refuses to enter the mitten.
 - d) He is too small to be noticed.

3. Why is the owl's behavior amusing?
 - a) He is grumpy and dislikes sharing space.
 - b) He keeps hooting loudly.
 - c) He flies away before entering the mitten.
 - d) He tells jokes to the other animals.

4. What causes all the animals to fly out of the mitten?
 - a) The mitten finally rips apart.
 - b) The fox chases them away.
 - c) The bear sneezes when the mouse tickles his nose.
 - d) Nicki finds the mitten and pulls it away.

5. How does the bear's entrance add to the humor?
 - a) He is the smallest animal to enter the mitten.
 - b) He politely asks if there is room.
 - c) He scares all the other animals away before entering.
 - d) He is huge but still squeezes in, making the mitten look ridiculous.

