

Name _____

Unseen Dread

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How does W.W. Jacobs create suspense when Mr. White makes his first wish?
  - a) The fire goes out suddenly.
  - b) A storm begins outside.
  - c) The room grows cold, and the wind rattles the windows.
  - d) The monkey's paw disappears immediately.
2. What effect does the knocking at the door have on the mood of the story?
  - a) It makes the Whites feel hopeful.
  - b) It adds excitement and happiness.
  - c) It increases the tension and fear.
  - d) It signals the end of the story.
3. Why does Mr. White hesitate before making the second wish?
  - a) He is worried that the wish will go wrong.
  - b) He does not remember how to use the monkey's paw.
  - c) He believes Herbert is still alive.
  - d) He does not want to upset his wife.
4. What is the significance of the final wish?
  - a) It brings Herbert back to life.
  - b) It makes the monkey's paw disappear forever.
  - c) It grants the Whites a new home.
  - d) It stops the knocking and removes whatever was outside.
5. What is one way W.W. Jacobs builds tension throughout the story?
  - a) By using cheerful descriptions of the White family's home.
  - b) By showing how each wish leads to unexpected consequences.
  - c) By having the characters sing songs.
  - d) By making every wish come true exactly as they expected.

