

Name _____

Hunting Lessons

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one of the first lessons Billy learns in the story?
 - a) Hunting is easy.
 - b) Hunting raccoons is dangerous.
 - c) His parents will always give him what he wants.
 - d) Dreams take hard work and patience to achieve.

2. How does Billy show determination before he gets his dogs?
 - a) He catches a raccoon all by himself.
 - b) He saves money for two years to buy them.
 - c) He asks his grandfather to give him the money.
 - d) He finds the dogs in the forest.

3. What do Old Dan and Little Ann teach Billy about teamwork?
 - a) They are better hunters when they work together.
 - b) They each try to hunt separately.
 - c) Only one of them is good at tracking raccoons.
 - d) They do not need Billy's help to succeed.

4. How does Billy learn about love and sacrifice?
 - a) His parents tell him that love is the most important thing.
 - b) He reads a book about loyalty.
 - c) His dogs protect him from a mountain lion.
 - d) He wins the hunting championship.

5. What does the red fern symbolize for Billy?
 - a) That he should get new dogs.
 - b) That his dogs' love and loyalty will never be forgotten.
 - c) That he should stop hunting.
 - d) That nature is always kind.

