

Name _____

The Great Train Adventure

In a lively trainstation, there was a bright red train named Tootie. Tootie loved to take kids on exciting adventures. Every morning, Tootie would blow her whistle and get ready for a fun-filled day.

One sunny day, Tootie was extra excited because she was going to the magical mountaintop. The kids climbed aboard with their backpacks filled with snacks and waterbottles. They couldn't wait to see what surprises the mountaintop had in store.

As Tootie chugged along, they passed a beautiful waterfall and a colorful butterfly garden. The kids were amazed by the sights. They took pictures with their cameras and sang songs as Tootie chugged up the hill.

When they reached the mountaintop, they found a hidden treasure chest! Inside, there were shiny goldcoins and sparkling jewels. The kids were thrilled and decided to share the treasure with everyone in the village.

After a fun day of exploring, Tootie took the kids back to the trainstation. They waved goodbye to Tootie, promising to come back for another adventure soon. Tootie blew her whistle happily, ready for her next journey.

