The Brave Mouse

Once there was a brave mouse named Pete. Pete lived in a small house near a large cave. One fine day, Pete decided to explore the cave. He put on his cape and grabbed a stick for safety.

As Pete walked into the cave, he saw a huge gate made of stone. The gate was very old and had vines all over it. Pete used his stick to move the vines and opened the gate. Inside, he found a wide space with a shiny chest.

Pete opened the chest and found a note. The note said, "You are brave and clever. This treasure is for you." Inside the chest, there were gold coins and a beautiful necklace.

Pete took the treasure back to his house. He shared the gold coins with his friends and kept the necklace as a reminder of his adventure. Pete was proud of his bravery and felt happy to help his friends.
