The Fun Run

Pat and his dog, Max, liked to run. One day, they went to the park for a fun run. Pat put on his cap, and Max wagged his tail. They were ready to go!

At the park, Pat and Max saw a big pond. Ducks were swimming, and frogs were jumping. Pat and Max ran past the pond and up a small hill. At the top of the hill, they stopped to rest.

Pat took a sip of water and gave Max a pat on the head. Max barked and licked Pat's face. They both felt happy and full of energy.

Next, they ran down the hill and saw a big tree. Under the tree, they found a log. Pat sat on the log, and Max lay next to him. They watched the birds fly and listened to them sing.

When the sun began to set, Pat and Max went back home. They were tired but had a lot of fun. Pat gave Max a big hug and said, "You are the best running buddy, Max!"
