The Magic Sketch

Hatch loved to draw. He had a special sketchbook where he drew all his favorite things. One day, Hatch drew a big, friendly dragon. As soon as he finished, something amazing happened. The dragon came to life and stretched its wings.

"Wow, you are real!" Hatch exclaimed. He named the dragon Mitch. Mitch had bright green scales and a gentle smile.

"Let's go on an adventure!" Mitch said. Hatch climbed on Mitch's back, and they flew high into the sky. They saw a patch of flowers and a flock of birds.

Suddenly, they saw a kitten stuck in a tree. "We have to help!" Hatch said. Mitch carefully flew down, and Hatch reached out to catch the kitten. The kitten was safe and very grateful.

They flew back home, and Hatch drew more adventures in his sketchbook. Every time he finished a drawing, it came to life. Hatch and Mitch became the best of friends, always ready for the next magical adventure.
