The Big Box Adventure

One sunny day, a big box was in the yard. Pam and her dog, Sam, ran to see what was inside. Pam said, "Look, Sam! This box is so big. Let's have fun with it!"

Pam and Sam got in the box. "I am the captain of this ship," said Pam. She put on a hat and held a stick like a sword. Sam barked and wagged his tail.

"We can go to the moon!" said Pam. She closed her eyes and pretended to fly. Sam looked at the sky and barked again. The big box was their rocket ship.

After a while, Pam said, "Now we are on the moon, Sam." They got out of the box and walked around. Pam picked up a rock. "This is a moon rock," she said. Sam sniffed the rock and wagged his tail.

Pam and Sam played all day. They went back to the box and pretended it was a house. Pam said, "Let's make tea." She got a cup and gave Sam a bowl. They sat in the box and had tea.

When the sun went down, Pam's mom called, "Time to come in!" Pam said, "Goodbye, big box. We will play again tomorrow." Pam and Sam ran to the house, happy from their big box adventure.
