

Name _____

The Hidden Garden

In the heart of a bustling city, there was a hidden garden that only a few knew about. A girl named Wendy loved to spend her afternoons there, surrounded by the peaceful sounds of nature. One day, while exploring, she found an old ladder leaning against a tree.

Wendy decided to climb the ladder, curious to see where it led. At the top, she discovered a wooden door with a rusty lock. She pushed the door open and stepped into a secret room filled with old books and dusty artifacts.

Among the artifacts, Wendy found a faded painting of a beautiful landscape. She dusted it off and saw a small pond in the center of the painting. Intrigued, Wendy decided to find this pond in the garden.

Following a narrow path, Wendy came across a small, hidden pond surrounded by wildflowers. She noticed a wooden bench nearby and sat down, enjoying the view. As she sat, she heard a gentle rustling behind her.

Turning around, Wendy saw a rabbit darting into the bushes. She decided to follow the rabbit, which led her to a hidden alcove with a stone statue. The statue held a scroll with mysterious writing. Wendy carefully unrolled the scroll and began to read.

The scroll told the story of a legendary gardener who had created the hidden garden many years ago. Wendy felt a deep connection to the garden and decided to take care of it, ensuring its beauty for future generations.