

Name _____

Magic Knight's Flight

In a tranquil village, there was a young knight named Knight named Roger. One bright morning, Roger received an intriguing message about a hidden treasure. Excited, he decided to embark on this new adventure.

Roger saddled his horse and followed the winding road leading out of the village. Along the way, he encountered a gnarled tree that seemed to point the direction. Trusting his instincts, Roger continued on the path.

Soon, he arrived at a small clearing where he found an old, abandoned cabin. Inside the cabin, he discovered a fragile, ancient map. The map revealed the location of a magical, glowing sword buried beneath a nearby hill.

Roger hurried to the hill and began to dig. After a few minutes, he uncovered the glowing sword, which shimmered with an ethereal light. As he held the sword, Roger felt a surge of courage and strength.

Returning to the village, Roger was greeted as a hero. The villagers celebrated his bravery, and the glowing sword became a symbol of hope and protection for everyone. Roger knew that with the magical sword by his side, he could face any challenge that came his way.