

Name _____

The Giant Croissant Caper

Short Answer Key

1. Monsieur Beaumont accidentally baked a giant croissant for Bastille Day.
2. Inspector Leclerc was a bumbling police officer, and he slipped on a stray piece of croissant dough, landing face-first in a pile of dough.
3. Madame Dubois and her students burst into laughter when they saw the giant croissant, turning their history lesson into a spontaneous celebration.
4. They dismantled the giant croissant and shared pieces with everyone, turning the mishap into a humorous and delicious experience.
5. Monsieur Beaumont's bakery gained more customers, including Inspector Leclerc and Madame Dubois, who became regulars.

