

Name _____

Diwali's Light Guardian

Short Answer Key

1. Ria's special powers manifested during Diwali when she could turn ordinary diyas into radiant torches, create mesmerizing fireworks, and spread happiness and kindness.
2. Ria created a tiny, glowing diya that floated to the child's window, bringing them light and hope to make them feel better.
3. Ria continued to use her powers throughout the year to spread light and joy wherever she went and remind everyone that the spirit of Diwali could be celebrated every day through acts of love and compassion.
4. The story teaches us that the true power of Diwali is not just in the lights and fireworks but in the love, kindness, and compassion shared among people, which can brighten lives and make a difference.
5. People were astonished and amazed by Ria's magical powers during Diwali. They appreciated the light, joy, and happiness she brought to their celebrations.

