

Name _____

Wisdom of the Whispering Trees

Short Answer Key

1. On Earth Day in the story, the trees gained the ability to communicate with humans.
2. The oldest tree in the park, Elderwood, spoke to the people, sharing the trees' ancient wisdom and secrets.
3. The trees taught the humans about the importance of preserving the natural world because they provide oxygen, shelter, and food for countless creatures and are interconnected with all life on Earth.
4. When the people heard the trees speak, they reacted with wonder and respect, and they vowed to take action to protect the environment.
5. The people committed to becoming allies of the trees by planting more trees, reducing their carbon footprint, and cherishing the natural world.

