

Name _____

The Great Groundhog Burrow-Off

Short Answer Key

1. The Whiskertons had a traditional and cozy decoration style, while the Digglebys favored extravagance and modernity.
2. The rivalry brought laughter and joy to the community, and it ultimately led to a collaborative celebration where families joined forces to decorate their burrows.
3. The contest ended in a tie, and Grandma Wanda and Grandpa Digger decided to combine their decorations to create a burrow that represented both traditional and modern elements.
4. The story teaches us the value of collaboration and compromise, as well as the idea that differences can lead to unique and joyful experiences.

