

Name _____

The Menorah Treasure Hunt

Short Answer Key

1. The Goldstein family turned their predicament into a treasure hunt to make the search for their missing menorah more fun and engaging.
2. The first clue in the treasure hunt led them to the family photo album, where they found a note.
3. At the town's historical museum, the family learned about the founding families of Willowbrook and found another clue.
4. The final clue in the treasure hunt led them to their own front door, where they found their missing menorah.
5. The Goldstein family likely felt overjoyed and deeply relieved when they finally found their heirloom menorah.

