House Traits

Short Answer Key

1. Harry was sorted into Gryffindor because he was brave, stood up for others, and showed courage in difficult situations.
2. Hufflepuff students are kind, loyal, and hardworking. They are known for fairness and dedication.
3. Ravenclaws stand out because they are intelligent, creative, and curious about learning new things.
4. People misunderstand Slytherin because some of its members are seen as unkind, but the house actually values ambition and determination.
5. The main message is that while each house has unique traits, a person's choices and actions matter more than their house.
