The Best Day at the Amusement Park

Lily and her family went to the largest amusement park for the best day ever. The weather was the sunniest, making everyone smile their brightest.

The first ride they went on was the fastest roller coaster, which had the highest drops. Lily screamed the loudest as the coaster zoomed down the steepest hills. Next, they visited the biggest ferris wheel, offering the clearest views of the park.

They ate the sweetest cotton candy, which Lily thought was the yummiest treat. Her little brother rode the gentlest carousel with the prettiest horses. By the end of the day, Lily felt the happiest she had ever been, knowing it was the most fun-filled adventure.
