

Name _____

The Twist

In a small town, there was an annual talent show that everyone looked forward to. This year, the local artist was excited to show his new painting. The pianist practiced every day to perfect her song. A famous guitarist was also set to perform, bringing his unique style to the stage.

An illusionist was planning a spectacular magic trick that would wow the audience. The biologist decided to share her knowledge of plants in a fun and engaging way. A humorist was ready to make everyone laugh with his hilarious jokes.

There was even a ventriloquist who could make her puppet talk in different voices. The florist decorated the stage with beautiful flowers to create a festive atmosphere. A hobbyist who loved building model airplanes displayed his latest creation.

As the day of the talent show approached, each participant felt a mix of excitement and nervousness. The entire town couldn't wait to see the amazing talents of their friends and neighbors.