

Name _____

Tim the Fearless Explorer

Tim was a fearless explorer who loved to embark on exciting journeys. One day, he decided to venture into the mysterious, endless forest near his home. With his trusty map, he felt worry-less as he stepped into the thick woods.

As he walked deeper, he noticed the forest was strangely soundless. Not a bird sang, and not a leaf rustled. Tim wasn't completely clueless about the dangers that could lurk, so he kept his eyes and ears sharp.

Suddenly, Tim stumbled upon a treeless meadow in the middle of the forest. It was a sight he had never seen before – so open and boundless. Feeling restless to explore more, he hurried across the meadow.

In the distance, Tim saw a glittering river. He knew it was not waterless, for it shimmered like silver under the sun. He was also aware that it was bottomless as legends said, with no one ever reaching its end.

Nearby, he found an old, leafless tree that had many carvings from past travelers. Tim decided to leave his mark too. He carved a small, timeless symbol on the bark, a reminder of his bold adventures.

As the sun began to set, Tim found a spot that was fearless of the night. He set up camp, knowing he was relentless in his quest for discovery. The night sky was endless and filled with countless stars, making Tim feel part of something boundless and grand.