

Name _____

The Dreamy Meadow

One fine day, a little lamb named Lea wanted to explore the meadow near her home. The meadow was full of green grass, colorful flowers, and lots of trees. Lea loved to dream about finding hidden treasures in the meadow.

Lea asked her friend, a rabbit named Dean, to join her on the adventure. They packed a small bag with some bread and cheese for a snack and set off to explore. As they walked through the meadow, they heard the gentle breeze rustling the leaves.

They found a clear stream and decided to rest by it. Lea dipped her feet in the cool water, and Dean nibbled on some grass nearby. Suddenly, Dean spotted something shiny near the stream. "Lea, come and see!" he called.

Lea ran over and saw a small box half-buried in the sand. They opened the box and found beautiful beads and a golden leaf inside. "Wow, these are treasures!" said Lea, her eyes gleaming with excitement.

After their exciting find, Lea and Dean continued to explore. They found a peaceful spot under a big tree where they had their snack. As they ate, they talked about their dreams and the fun they had in the meadow.

When the sun began to set, Lea and Dean headed back home. They were tired but happy from their adventure. Lea dreamed about their next trip to the dreamy meadow, wondering what other treasures they might find.