

Name _____

Roy's Joyful Toy Shop

In the heart of Toyland, nestled between towering candy cane trees and fluffy cotton candy clouds, stood Roy's Joyful Toy Shop. Roy, the friendly robot, greeted visitors with a bright smile and a cheerful "Welcome!" The shelves of the shop were filled with an array of toys, from bouncing balls to colorful crayons. Every day, children from far and wide would come to explore the wonders of Roy's Toy Shop, their eyes twinkling with excitement.

One sunny morning, as Roy was arranging the toys on the shelves, he heard a delighted squeal – it was a group of kittens playing with a toy mouse! Roy chuckled with joy at the sight of the playful kittens, knowing that his shop brought happiness to all who visited.

As the day turned to dusk, Roy's Toy Shop transformed into a magical wonderland, illuminated by twinkling fairy lights and glowing lanterns. The toys seemed to come to life, dancing and singing with joy. Roy joined in the festivities, leading the toys in a merry parade around the shop.

From dolls to dinosaurs, every toy joined in the fun, creating memories that would last a lifetime. As the stars twinkled overhead, Roy closed the doors of his shop, knowing that tomorrow would bring even more joy and laughter to Toyland.

