

Name _____

Caesar's Tragedy

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Some may say Caesar could have avoided his downfall by listening to warnings, while others may argue that his fate was already decided.
2. The play shows that too much pride can make people ignore dangers and lead to bad decisions.
3. Answers will vary, but students should consider loyalty, responsibility, and power.
4. Leaders today can learn that listening to advice and being aware of their own weaknesses is important.

