

Name _____

Family Bonds

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary. Some may argue that being close makes a family stronger, while others may say that independence is also important.
2. Responses should include feelings about being part of a supernatural family and how it would be different from a human family.
3. The author likely wanted to highlight the differences between human and vampire life to make the story more interesting.
4. Having a supportive family can help people feel safe, make good choices, and overcome challenges.

