

Name _____

The Adventures of Super Puppy

One bright morning, Ben and his sister Lucy were playing in the park with their dog, Max. Max was a small, fluffy puppy with big, curious eyes. He loved to run and jump, but today he found something special.

Max dug in the dirt and found a shiny, red cape. "Look, Lucy! Max has found a cape!" Ben said excitedly.

Lucy laughed. "Let's put it on him and pretend he's a superhero!"

They tied the cape around Max's neck, and something magical happened. Max began to glow, and suddenly he could fly! Max zoomed into the sky, surprising Ben and Lucy.

"Wow! Max is a real superhero now!" Lucy exclaimed.

Max flew high above the park, and Ben and Lucy followed him on their bikes. Max noticed a cat stuck in a tree. Using his new superpowers, he gently lifted the cat and brought it safely to the ground.

"Thank you, Super Puppy!" the cat meowed.

Next, Max heard a cry for help. A little boy had dropped his ball in the pond. Max flew over the water, grabbed the ball with his teeth, and returned it to the boy.

"You're the best, Super Puppy!" the boy cheered.

Max continued to help others all day. He saved a lost bird, stopped a runaway stroller, and even helped an old man find his way home. Everyone in the park was amazed by Super Puppy's bravery and kindness.

As the sun began to set, Max flew back to Ben and Lucy. They took off his cape, and he returned to being their regular, playful puppy.

"What an incredible day," Ben said. "Max really is a superhero."

Lucy hugged Max. "We should keep the cape safe so he can be Super Puppy again whenever he's needed."

They all went home, tired but happy, knowing they had the best puppy in the world.

