

Name _____

Division Word Problems

1. A software company has developed a new application with 600 lines of code. If they want to assign the code equally among 12 programmers for testing, how many lines of code will each programmer test?
2. A charity organization received a donation of $2,400. If the money is to be divided equally among 6 different projects, how much money will each project receive?
3. A farmer harvested 720 oranges from his orchard. If he wants to pack them into crates with an equal number of oranges per crate and he has 8 crates available, how many oranges will be in each crate?
4. A bookstore received a shipment of 540 textbooks. If they want to display them on shelves with an equal number of books on each shelf and they have 15 shelves available, how many books will be on each shelf?
5. A construction project requires laying 480 bricks. If the bricks are to be divided equally among 8 workers, how many bricks will each worker need to lay?
6. A classroom of 36 students collectively needs to solve 504 math problems. If they work together and divide the problems equally among themselves, how many problems will each student solve?
7. A company produced 480 units of a new product in a day. If they need to distribute them evenly among 6 warehouses, how many units will each warehouse receive?
8. A sports team scored 450 points in a season. If they played 15 games, with each game being equally important, how many points did they score per game on average?
9. A group of 600 students is planning a field trip. If they need to rent 10 buses to accommodate everyone and distribute the students equally among the buses, how many students will be on each bus?
10. A zoo received 720 visitors on a busy day. If they want to divide them equally into 12 guided tour groups with the same number of visitors in each group, how many visitors will be in each group?

