

Single vs. Double Quote

DIRECTIONS: Circle whether each sentence is missing single or double quotation marks for American English.

- |   |        |        |
|---|--------|--------|
| 1. I love my dog, George said.  | single | double |
| 2. Ed wants us to call him Superman.                                    | single | double |
| 3. Hercules here helped me move my furniture.                           | single | double |
| 4. Our song is The Way We Were.   | single | double |
| 5. The Raven is my favorite poem.                                       | single | double |
| 6. "Whenever I see Betty, I call out, Hello friend!"                    | single | double |
| 7. These are supposed to be free, but we have to give an email address. | single | double |
| 8. This is the best day ever, Tanya said.                               | single | double |
| 9. I never saw that coming, Pat told me.                                | single | double |
| 10. This song is called Rainforest Rap.                                 | single | double |

