

ANSWERS

The stick bug is an insect that looks like a stick or a tree branch. This helps it to hide from animals that eat insects, like birds and bats. Stick bugs rock back and forth, so they look like twigs being blown by the breeze.