

Name _____

Twisted Truths

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why is the name "Camp Green Lake" ironic?
 - a) The camp is full of green trees
 - b) The camp does not have a lake or anything green
 - c) The lake is very deep and full of fish
 - d) The camp is a fun place for boys to play

2. What is ironic about Stanley's punishment?
 - a) He enjoys digging holes every day
 - b) He actually stole the shoes but never got caught
 - c) He is innocent but still gets punished
 - d) He confesses to stealing even though he didn't

3. What is ironic about the Warden making the boys dig holes?
 - a) She is looking for treasure but never finds it
 - b) She enjoys watching them suffer
 - c) She does not believe in buried treasure
 - d) She pays the boys for their hard work

4. What lesson does Stanley's family learn about their "curse"?
 - a) They were cursed forever and could not escape it
 - b) Luck does not matter as much as making the right choices
 - c) Stanley's bad luck was only getting worse
 - d) Zero was the one who broke the curse

5. How does irony make Holes more interesting?
 - a) It confuses the reader
 - b) It shows that everything in life is fair
 - c) It makes the story harder to understand
 - d) It adds humor and highlights unfairness

