

Name _____

Unbreakable Bonds

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How does Billy show his bond with Old Dan and Little Ann?
  - a) He teaches them tricks for a circus.
  - b) He talks to them, cares for them, and risks his life for them.
  - c) He lets them hunt on their own.
  - d) He sells them after a year of hunting.

2. What does Billy do when Little Ann falls into the river?
  - a) He calls for help but does not go in.
  - b) He waits for her to climb out on her own.
  - c) He risks his own life to pull her out.
  - d) He leaves because it is too dangerous.

3. How do Old Dan and Little Ann show their loyalty to Billy?
  - a) They run away when they see a mountain lion.
  - b) They let Billy hunt by himself.
  - c) They hunt alone and ignore Billy's calls.
  - d) They fight a mountain lion to protect him.

4. What does the red fern symbolize in the story?
  - a) The never-ending bond of love and loyalty.
  - b) A magical place where dogs go after they pass away.
  - c) A sign that Billy should stop hunting.
  - d) A warning that animals should not be pets.

5. What lesson does Billy learn about the bond between humans and animals?
  - a) Animals are just tools for hunting.
  - b) A strong bond with animals can last a lifetime.
  - c) It is better not to get attached to animals.
  - d) Animals cannot understand human emotions.

