

Name _____

The Mystery of Fading Spring Colors

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What mystery do the kids set out to solve?
 - a) The disappearance of their bicycles
 - b) The fading colors of Spring
 - c) The sudden appearance of snow in Spring
 - d) The growth of mushrooms in their town

2. How do the kids gather information about the disappearing Springtime colors?
 - a) They hire a detective
 - b) They visit the local library
 - c) They ask their teacher
 - d) They don't gather any information

3. What do they discover from their research at the library?
 - a) The colors are fading only in their town
 - b) Pollution might be affecting the plants
 - c) The flowers are wilting due to overwatering
 - d) A new type of paint is causing the colors to fade

4. What challenge do the kids face after conducting soil and water tests?
 - a) They have to find more test samples
 - b) They need to organize a picnic
 - c) They have to write letters to their local government
 - d) They have to wait for the test results

5. How do the kids ultimately work to restore Spring's colors?
 - a) They organize community cleanups and spread awareness about pollution
 - b) They buy new plants and flowers for their gardens
 - c) They move to a different town with more colorful Spring
 - d) They wait for the colors to come back on their own

