Name _____

The Riddling Friend

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. What qualities do you think made Gracie and Sammie's friendship strong, despite the challenge of communicating through riddles?

2. If you had a friend like Riddleo, who could only communicate through riddles, how do you think you would feel? How would you adapt to this unique way of communicating?

3. What do you think the story is trying to convey about the nature of friendship and the willingness to overcome challenges for the sake of companionship?

4. Can you think of a time when you had to work together with a friend to solve a problem or help someone in need? How did that experience strengthen your friendship?

© ReadingDuck.com